"Don't Overlook Tropico, Look It Over!"

The Board of Managers, of the Carnival, after considering the hundred or so slogans sent in, decided that the above slogan was the most appropriate, and upon motion adopted it as a permanent slogan for the Carnival, and to be used afterwards as synonymous of Tropico. "Don't Overlook Tropico; Look It Over," will be used on all advertising for the Carnival. Business men will be asked to use the slogan on their stationery and every means possible will be exercised to get the slogan before the outer world.

The slogan was sent in without a signature, therefore we cannot announce the winner at this time.

TROPICO BOY SCOUTS WILL ORGANIZE CAMP

TROPICO BOY SCOUTS TO ORGANIZE AT ONCE AND WILL PREPARE FOR THE CARNIVAL

Tropico, at the present time, has no boy scout organization, but plans are being made whereby the boys will get together and be in readiness for the carnival. Full particulars will be announced later and it is hoped that every parent will urge their boys to become a member of this organization.

There seems to exist among some people a wrong impression of the workings of the Boy Scouts of America.

The ideals and activities of the Boy Scouts of America are for peace, scouting and the building up of body, mind and character. In almost every instance, investigation has shown that the opposition of the labor people and socialists has been based upon false impressions of the Boy Scouts of America, obtained from groups of small boys carrying rifles and identified with the American Boy Scout Movement. The rifle is not part of the equipment of the Boy Scouts of America.

Another cause for confusion, was the unfortunate publication in the book temporarily used as a manual for the Boy Scouts of America of two of the laws from the English Manual which were objectionable to the labor organizations, as well as to the leaders of the scout movement in this country. This mistake was most natural. In the effort to meet the urgent demands of the boys in all parts of the country clamoring for literature on the scout movement, a book was hastily prepared for temporary use and parts of the English Manual which did not conform with American conditions, were unintentionally re-printed without revision. As soon as attention was invited to this material, although any alterations involved considerable expense, the Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America directed that the plates of the book be changed as soon as practicable.

These laws were changed to read as follows: "A scout is loyal. He is loyal to all whom loyalty is due, his scout leader, his home and parents, his country." And the other one was changed to read as follows: "A scout is obedient. He obeys his parents, scoutmaster, Patrol Leader and all other duly constituted authorities."

Surely no patriotic American citizen whether a member of a Labor Union or affiliated with any other American institutions, and truly interested in American boys, can seriously object to these scout laws as modified. In this as in all other matters, the leaders of the scout movement have endeavored to show that the scout movement is designed for American boys, rich or poor, and its plan is to make them strong in character as in body.

THURS. AFTN. CLUB GIVES ANOTHER DANCE

The dance given Saturday night, August 29th, by the Thursday Afternoon club was a great success financially, as well as socially. It was given in the Glendale Masonic hall and a goodly number of Glendale, as well as Tropico people were present. Dancing and playing cards to buy a clubhouse certainly seems to appeal to everyone and if the coming dances are met with as much enthusiasm, as the first two have been, the clubhouse will be erected by a series of good times.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES IN REGULAR SESSION

BOARD ENDEAVORS TO FORMULATE SOME PLAN WHEREBY THE ENTIRE CITY CAN BE LIGHTED BY ORAMENTAL STANDARDS

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was held Thursday evening at the city hall. All members present. After the reading of the minutes of last meeting the regular order of business was taken up.

N. C. Burch withdrew his offer to write insurance on the city hall in favor of Hal Davenport who submitted an offer to write the remaining one-half in the company that he represented at 45 cents per hundred.

The subject of ornamental lighting was brought up and it was suggested that a system of single lights be installed throughout the city and the price be paid out of the general fund. This would cover the entire city, provided the property owners so desired. From statements the cost would be approximately $12.50 a 50 foot lot. The matter was left for consideration.

C. C. Chandler appeared and asked if there was any ordinance conveying the keeping of bees. He was informed that there was no such ordinance, but that in case of a nuisance the city marshal, after investigation, would just the matter.

An ordinance regulating the driving of loose animals through the city was offered and declared read for the first time.

The matter of weeds and rubbish on parkways was brought up and it was decided that the street Superintendent be instructed to notify all property owners where necessary that they were to clean up the parkway at once and in case of no attention be paid that he do the work and charge the same against the owners.

An ordinance fixing the rate of taxes for the fiscal year was read for the third time and upon motion was adopted.

Several demands were offered and upon motion were referred to the finance committee.

"NEWSPAPER DAY" TO BE OBSERVED OCT. 1

PLAN IS TO HAVE RESIDENTS MAIL COPIES OF PAPERS TO THEIR FRIENDS

Following the example set in San Diego and Imperial counties, the Los Angeles county board of supervisors set aside October 1 as "Newspaper Day." On that day the residents of the county will be expected to send copies of their family newspapers to friends at a distance. If every person will do this it is clear that more than half a million newspapers will be sent east from this country on that date.

On October 2 the Sentinel will make an effort to present matters that will prove of special interest to persons at a distance and it is hoped that every family receiving this paper will mail it to a friend. This will go a long way towards advertising Tropico.

SOU. PAC. LOCAL TRAIN CRASHES INTO AUTO

Geo. Ragland Killed and Wm. Boyle Seriously Injured By Auto Accident Last Friday Evening.

Last Friday evening about 6:30 the Southbound Santa Barbara local on the Southern Pacific crashed into an auto driven by Geo. Ragland with whom was Wm. Boyle, at the Tropico avenue crossing.

Mr. Ragland was carried with the automobile some 300 feet and after much effort was extricated from the demolished machine suffering from a fracture of the skull, left leg and right arm broken besides being internally injured. He was rushed to the Tropico Hospital where he died without gaining consciousness.

Mr. Boyle was thrown from the machine at the first impact sustaining body cuts and bruises. He was also taken to the hospital and at the last news was resting easy and in no danger of any serious after trouble.

Mr. Ragland who is a son-in-law of James Bryson, who is visiting in the north, lived with his wife, well known as Hazel Bryson and a whistler of note, at 311 N. Glendale avenue, and with Mr. Boyle, who resides at Mt. Washington, were returning to the Ragland home, where a dinner had been prepared complimentary to Mr. Boyle, who has just recently returned from a world trip, when the terrible accident occurred.

The funeral of Mr. Ragland occurred last Monday. Interment at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

An investigation will be instituted to determine the placing of the blame. Mr. Ragland was 29 years old and was a salesman for a Los Angeles Salt Co. He was well known in Tropico and leaves besides the widow, several brothers and sisters and a host of friends.

THE GARNIVAL BOARD OF MANAGERS OUTLINE DAY'S PROGRAM

"DON'T OVERLOOK TROPICO, LOOK IT OVER" IS THE SLOGAN ADOPTED BY THE CARNIVAL MANAGERS

Monday evening the Carnival Managers met and received the success of the financial committee. With a view of determining whether the citizens were in accord with the plans to the extent of contributing to the expenses. It was found that practically every citizen approached had shown their approval by signing their names to the paper and a liberal amount promised. This fact shows conclusively that the public spent in Tropico is universal and the erroneous reports about Tropico never being able to get together is all wrong. Everybody is entering into the spirit of boost with a fervor and the carnival, to be held some time in October, is going to put the town on the map and every indication points to some big things for Tropico in the near future.

Plans are under way for some of the features of the program. There will be a detachment of Boy Scouts from Pasadena, Monrovia, Redondo, Glendale and Tropico, who will go into camp, where they will go through the scout maneuvers.

Arrangements are being made for an automobile drill and a sham battle by boys from military schools. During the afternoon there will be a burlesque ball game in costume, while the entire day will be interspersed with band music and the antics of comic carnival characters. There will be booths selling "hot dogs," lemonade, candy, popcorn, ice cream, balloons, squakers, horns, etc., besides sideshows, merry-go-rounds and ferris wheels. In the evening the lights will be turned on probably by Gov. Johnson or some other notable. A confetti battle and street dancing.

The Masonic lodge will have charge of the dedicatory exercises of the new City Hall, while the Elks and other lodges will give drills. It is to be one big gala day, advertised throughout Southern California, which will draw thousands of people to our city who cannot help but return again after seeing the advantages offered.

All that the managers ask is that every man, woman and child rally to the support of helping to make the carnival a rip-roaring success.

HOEGEES' JANTS ARE TOO FAST FOR GREYS

TROPICO BALL TEAM RUNS UP AGAINST ANOTHER SET OF TOO FAST MEN

Tropico Greys after winning the pennant are falling down on the job, or perhaps they are picking on too big teams. Sunday they lost to the Hoegee Giants to the tune of 6 to 0. A coat of whitewash is what the visitors handed them. It was very evident that the boys did not play their usual game.

Daniels was up for his last game for awhile, and next Sunday Eves will take his place in center, when the Greys will battle with the Native Sons.

The line up and score is as follows: Tropico—Mason, 2b; Daniels, cf; Sesney, 1b; Flores, ss; Bidwell, 3b; Farmer, c; Laird, lf; Gabalg, rf; Oliver, p.

Hoegee Giants—Pasco, ss; Goings, 3b; G. Carr, 1b; Washington, lf; Kyle, rf; Wilson, 2b; W. Carr, c; Brooks, cf; Broadway, p.

SALT LAKE ENGINE RUNS OFF OF TRACK

SALT LAKE ENGINE LEAVES TRACK AND TEARS UP RAILS AND TIES; NOBODY HURT

Tuesday afternoon as the local freight on the Salt Lake route turned on Glendale avenue, the engine left the track and plowed out into the street, tearing up track and ties. One freight car also left the track. The balance of the train was cut loose and allowed to run back off the rightaway, but several hours was spent in getting the engine and track back in shape. Nobody was injured.

A merry party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Meagher and Miss Geraldine Meagher of Tenth street and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ryker and Miss Arley Ryker of Los Angeles returned last week after a delightful sojourn at Catalina Islands. One of the many interesting things enjoyed was a cruise on Mr. Ryker's launch Lorraine.

WILL CHANGE TO DAILY

Last Tuesday the South Pasadena Record, for a number of years conducted as a semi-weekly, was converted into a daily. No doubt the claims made by manager Wickizer, "To make it the best country daily in Southern California" will be fulfilled. E. A. Wickizer took the Record over when it was a struggling weekly and by sheer nerve and hard work, has now put the paper in the lead. He has, during his residence in South Pasadena, been, through the columns of the Record, a factor in the upbuilding of that municipality. His fearless articles, showing up the aqueduct, have been copied by many other papers and have been the means of thwarting some of the deep laid plans of Los Angeles to consolidate surrounding territory.

Editor Stump will continue "space filler," thus assuring the readers of the "Daily Record" a full and complete record of the daily doings of the San Gabriel valley.

Here's to the success of the venture.

NOTICE

Every citizen of Tropico is invited to use the columns of this paper, and you are urged to do so. All articles must be in this office not later than Tuesday and must bear signature of writer.

There is one election you should attend to every day. That is to elect to buy your goods of Lankershim merchants. In glaring advertisements in the daily press, the Los Angeles merchants seek to coax you to the city, but, verily their promises are a delusion and a snare. You find, after a hot, tired day on the hard, crowded streets of Los Angeles, that you could have purchased the article from your home merchant for less money. Distance always lends enchantment, but wise shoppers soon learn that "enchanted" prices and beautiful bargain sales usually prove to be baits to catch the dollar of the unsophisticated. Buy your goods at home. Keep the dollar here and you may get a chance to see it a second time. Take it to the city and you will never look upon its face again. A dollar in your home town is worth two in Los Angeles.—Lankershim Laconic.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees it was decided that some form of precedure should be taken at once for the purpose of ascertaining how many of the property owners in Tropico would be willing to spend a small amount on each 50-foot lot for the purpose of establishing a universal ornamental lighting system throughout the city. There is no way in the world so helpful to make a city attractive than an ornamental lighting system. Some of the property owners will protest this to the tune of insufficient funds. True, we are all hard up, especially now. But if we are going to be pessimistic all our lives we are never going to get anywhere. About one year ago the writer overheard two men talking together in Glendale. One was a stranger while the other was an old resident there. During the conversation the resident spoke of Tropico. He was interrupted with the remark "Where is Tropico?" The resident replied: "Down here, a ways behind a tree; oh! no; they have cut the tree down."

The present lighting system is "behind a tree," too, and behind the times, too. If we are ever going to make any headway now is the time to do it.

California will have an influx of visitors and settlers greater than ever this fall. The war will have a tendency to bring many more here than was estimated, and there is no reason under the sun why Tropico should not get her share. The available property in our small municipality offers inducements that, if bolstered up with some attractions such as an ornamental lighting system, would readily be gathered up by prospective home-builders, and at a premium that would well repay the expenditure of money needed to install. It is safe to assume that every parcel of property in Southern California is for sale, and the owner who makes his the most attractive is going to make the first sale.

Let us all join in and help the Trustees make good.

The California State Board of Optometry are instituting a vigorous crusade against the house to house peddlers of spectacles. The too much abuse from the hands of itinerant peddlers is now being recognized by the state legislatures, and each session sees new measures adopted stamping out these evils. There is, however, a certain class of spectacle users who still hold to the theory that optometrists or opticians charge too much for their service when the same glasses, as far as they know, can be purchased from the "yankee peddler" for about one-tenth. It stands to reason that they would not call in a peddler to prescribe in a case of illness, yet they will buy 25-cent spectacles and imagine that they can see as well as if they had paid an oculist $25.

Legislature has enacted a law making it illegal for even a registered optometrist to call at your house or send a solicitor, and every reader of this will be paid a reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any illegal practice of optometry.

The following is the gist of the act:

It is unlawful—First—For any one to examine eyes and fit glasses unless holding a bona fide and unrevoked certificate authorized by the state.

Second—Or to practice by authority of such certificate without recording the same with the county clerk of any county in which the holder intends to practice.

Third—Going from house to house or sending a solicitor from house to house.

Fourth—To fail to give each person fitted, a receipt which shall show the number of the optometrist's certificate with permanent registered address, a description of the glasses fitted, and the price charged for same; whenever fitting a case outside of his regularly established place of business.

Fifth—Regularly licensed physicians only are exempt from the provisions of this act.

PARADOXES IN BUSINESS

By William C. Anderson

Of all sublime things in business honesty o'er shadows all others, but a business man puts a premium on the sublime thing by hiring a clerk at six or seven dollars a week on the strength of recommendations for integrity and honesty and then puts the clerk under a $5,000 bond to protect the firm from loss by theft.

A clerk is hired from a business college because he is apt at figures; then several hundred dollars is paid for an adding machine to do the adding.

Another clerk is hired to sell goods and make change for the customers; then several hundred dollars is invested in a cash register to check up the clerk, and when the machine slips a cog the boss sits up all night trying to find the lost cent, while the clerk is under suspicion.

We give short weight when a widow buys a pound of adulterated coffee and donate five dollars toward a new orphanage; charge it to charity account and feel blessed.

We preach confidence in honest dealing and hire a watchman to sit all night in front of a burglar-proof safe and leave the lights burn at the front door so the policeman on the beat can look in to see if the watchman yawns.

We hire an honest chauffeur to drive a delivery truck and engage a motorcycle cop to follow him for fear that the truck will be used for joy riding (John Dangerous).

A man will spend his life building up a sausage business, and after it is a going concern he will sell out to a trust with the understanding that his son, educated for the ministry, will have a life job.

A business man will sell goods on sixty days' credit, and when the bill is due he accepts a six months' note in settlement and calls it an asset.

PROFIT SHARING.

The question is, Can we go on still further with the wage system and democracy? I think not. We have seen for twenty years the growing hostility between these two camps—labor and capital. Under the wage system it was inevitable that there should be two forces. We have tried various devices to end this strife—arbitration of various kinds and the Canadian system. An industrial method which gives the workman or operative the same motive and interest which the owner feels is the thing that is desirable—that is, the road to efficiency—to increase not only a single trade like yours, but the efficiency and happiness of the whole people.

How do it? Perhaps you'll think I'm not sticking to my subject. But I am, for I firmly believe the only road to efficiency is profit sharing.—Dr. Charles W. Elliot.

The Sophists in ancient Greece, you remember, taught a false philosophy of life and things, their premises being based on fallacy. They tried to make two plus two equal three. A few thrive today. It has a capacity sufficient to wash at one time all the dishes of the average family, yet is so light and portable that it can be easily moved from place to place.

The movement of the handle forward and backward revolves the propeller in the bottom of the washer, which dashes the hot soapy water with a swirling effect around, through and over all the dishes, fondly attacking them at all points, and cleansing them with absolute perfection on all sides. The dishes are completely washed in less than one minute's time and the washer works so easily that a child can operate it.

Turning down the small lever at the top of the washer, opens drain valve and discharges the water in a few seconds. The dishes are then rinsed and sterilized by pouring a dishpan of clear boiling water through the lid and turning the handle about thirty seconds. The rinsing operation automatically cleans the washer itself, which always remains in an absolutely sanitary condition.

being assured by his well wishers of success, has moved his Cyclery from Grace Court to 112½ South San Fernando Boulevard, where he will be better able to attend to his customer's Either with evil intent or with a view of ridding the neighborhood of gophers, somebody has been placing poison around in the Richardson tract, which has been the end of some valuable dogs and cats. When a person deliberately puts out poison with a view of killing somebody's dog or cat they are miscreants. When the same poison is put out for gophers the person should be careful and not leave it exposed.

at their sewing, then the young men arrived at 6 and a delicious four-course chicken dinner was served to the 14 guests. After dinner a peanut hunt was enjoyed. Each guest was provided with a tiny candle, by the light of which they hunted for peanuts. Miss Birdie Shropshire of Glendale secured first prize for the ladies and Mr. Lou's Baker for the gentlemen, after which a most delightful last Monday afternoon in honor of the third birthday of little Dorothy Eve-

RANDALL'S VAST LEAD FOR CONGRESS

The complete unofficial count of the Ninth Congressional District gives Charles H. Randall, who is the candidate of the "California Dry" forces, a vast lead over all of his competitors. Randall's total vote is 17,306, while his nearest opponent, Roberts, received 7051, Bell being third in the race with 6505 votes. Randall's majority over both of these men, who will contest with him at the November election, is 3750.

Of the six men who were candidates in this district, Randall received 45 per cent of all the votes cast. The table of percentages shows the following results:

Randall, "Dry"	45%
Roberts, Rep.	18%
Bell, Prog.	17%
Robinson, Rep.	9%
Hart, Soc.	6%
Hoodenpyl, Dem.	5%

Silently the fancies creep,

And the heart itself must weep—
Such the music fills the room—

GERMAN PROVERBS.

The lazy become industrious in the evening.

Nobility and nobleness are two different things.

Every beginning is difficult, as said the thief on stealing an anvil to commence with.

Better go to bed without supper than rise with debts.

The parsons labor in God's vineyard and the doctors in his churchyard.

He who does not become handsome before twenty years of age, strong before thirty, wise before forty, rich before fifty—on such a man hops and mait are lost.

TROPICO SHORT OF GIRLS?

A very delightful time was enjoyed by a merry party who wended their way leisurely up to Griffith Park till they reached the picnic grounds. It was the party who had received invitations to the picnic given by Hal Mc-Nutt and Joe Wilson. This picnic was last Thursday evening, and the only fault found with it was that it was too short. Only think of it! They had to get out of the park at 10 o'clock. After the interesting walk over they all were in a good mood for eating, as some attempted the trip without eating anything before going —possibly this was done in order to be able to eat more after they got there. At any rate it would have been rather hard to resist the temptation of one of Mrs. Seaman's picnic dinners, even if one had just eaten.
It is needless to say that everybody filled up their stomachs' content—and on top of the "hot dogs," etc., there was cake and pie. The pie was grand, but Joe Wilson had to go and make hash out of the cake.

It was a lovely night and the pic-nickers around the feast table, their faces lighted only by the camp fire, made a very picturesque scene.

After the meal was over every one sought a cozy seat in order to digest the eats to better advantage and to fill their lungs with the invigorating air of Griffith Park. For a few minutes the talking subsided and quietness seemed to reign. The stillness was only broken by the music of the ukules and as the girls began to hum the tunes, the boys joined in and it was not long before all were having a grand time. While we are talking about singing, we wish to take note of one especially—a Miss Ethel Stoddard—whose sweet, uneven contralto voice floated on the air like the croak-ing of a bullfrog in the low lands of Arkansas.

As it was 10 o'clock, they began their journey homeward—this time more leisurely, as the party left in "couples," and naturally had to linger here and there to make comments on some shady wooded dell, the fragrance of the perfume of the will-flowers and the "magic" colors of the sky. All had a good time.

The reader is perhaps wondering why this article is headed, "Tropico Short of Girls?" For further information on this subject consult Miss Ethel Stoddard.

Those attending the picnic were:
Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Seaman, chaperons; Misses Jeanette and Eloise Seaman; Margaret Hancock, Bertha Sayre, Lynn McNutt, Lelia Shea; Messrs. Joe Wilson, Hal and Maddi-son McNutt, Dwight Stephenson, Joe Seaman, Ferdinand Rigali, Cecil Crandall, Chas. Soule, Jammie Shea, H. C.
Seaman, Bob Oliver.—Contributed.

BEWARE OF SPECTACLE FAKERS

The people of California are warned against peddling optical fakers going about the country offering to test eyes and fit glasses.

The Legislature of this State recognizing the gross impositions practiced by these itinerants has enacted a general law and has made it illegal for any, even a Registered Optometrist, to call at your home or to send a solicitor.

If such should call on you we warn you to have nothing to do with them—and if possible report the matter to the nearest sheriff or police department. There are Registered Optometrists who are permanently located in your county.

A reward of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) will be paid for information that will lead to the arrest and con-

STOCK JUDGING CONTEST TO WIN FARM SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships at the University Farm have been offered by the State Agricultural Society as prizes in a live stock-judging contest at this year's State Fair at Sacramento. The contest will be directed by the Animal Husbandry Division of the University of California.

A $125 scholarship will be awarded to the young man, over 18 and under 22, who makes the best showing in the judging of farm livestock, provided he has had no training at a regular agricultural school or college. To boys under 18 a $40 scholarship in the Short Course at the University Farm, October 5 to November 14, is offered; while to the young man under 25 who has had systematic training in livestock judging at some agricultural school a $50 trip to the ranches of prominent California breeders is offered.

The University Farm expects that many young men interested in livestock will apply to the Secretary of the State Fair at Sacramento for this chance to demonstrate their skill in the selection of first-prize animals.

With both a vast supply of grain and a demand for it in sight, the calamity prophet cannot expect a very sympathetic audience.

THE FARMHOUSE PIANO.

The old piano is a pet.
The farmer thinks it fine.
It was the best that he could get In 1889.

He tells the boarders with much pride
Of how he blew his dough
To buy it for his bonny bride
So many years ago.

The wires are getting rather loose.
And yellow are its keys.
Sometimes it gurgles like a goose.
Sometimes emits a wheeze.

But still it seems a goodly thing
When girls from rustic dells Sit down and make the welkin ring
With "Monastery Bells."
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE CAVALIER'S SONG.

A steed, a steed of matchless speed!

A sword of metal keene!

All else to noble heartes is drosse;

All else on earth is meane.

The neilhynges of the war-horse prowde.

The rowlinge of the drum,
The clangor of the trumpet lowde.

Be soundes from heaven that come;

And, oh, the thundering presse of knights.

Whenas their war-cries swell,
May tole from heaven an angel bright

And rouse a fiend from hell!

Then mounte, then mounte, brave gallants all,

And don you helmes amaine!
Death's couriers, fame and honor, call

Us to the field againe.

No shrewish feares shall fill our eye

When the sword-blt's in our hand.

Heart whole we'll part and so whilt sighe

For the fayrest of the land;
Let piping swaine and craven wight

Thus weepe and puling crye.
Our business is like men to fight
And hero-like to die!

Our Windows Always Bright And Clean

By MOSS.

THE value of a piece of real estate is measured by the number of people who pass it daily. The corner streets, Alhafa, is not as valuable as the corner of Broadway and Wall street, New York city.

The value of a show window people who stop in front of it daily.

This paper is a HUGE SHOW WINDOW.

Thousands stop in front of it

Are YOUR goods displayed therein for the observation of these thousands? Do you think it pays for them not to see your goods?

Great department stores in New York, Chicago and such cities pay big salaries to expert window dressers. Thousands daily troop in front of their windows, attracted by the offerings so attractively displayed. These same stores spend fortunes for page after page of window dis-

BIBLE STUDY ON

THE GREAT COMMANDMENTS.

Mark 12:28-44—Sept. 6.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind; and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."—Luke 10:27.

ON the question day when the Doctors of Divinity sought to entrap our Lord many questions were asked. A week ago we considered today's Study. A Scribe, man of more than average education, had heard the various questions propounded and had perceived how well our Lord had answered them. Then he assayed a question—quite probably with all sincerity, and not with a view to entrap Jesus. He asked, "Which is the chief commandment of all?"— doubtless referring to the Decalogue.

Jesus replied that the first, the chief, of all the commandments is, "Hear, O

Israel; The Lord

our God is one

Lord; and thou shalt love Jehovah

thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul,

and with all thy mind, and with all

thy strength; that is the chief commandment.

Our Lord here

made a quotation

from the Old Testament. (Deuteronomy 6:4, 5) How wonderfully comprehensive the statement! Who today, centuries afterward, could more completely epitomize the great truth of this text? Heavenly

Wisdom is manifested both in its first statement and in our Lord's reference to it. He added nothing because nothing could be added.

In times gone by, we were told that the Almighty God of the Universe had a great hell of torture prepared from before man's creation, in which He purposed that the great majority of humanity should be eternally tormented.

But that was in the creeds. The Bible stands out distinctly separate from all human creeds and superstitions, and tells us that God is Love, that He is the Father of Light and Mercy, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift.—James 1:17.

The Second Commandment.

Proceeding beyond the question, Jesus declared that the second commandment stands related to the first; namely, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Again we stand astonished.

No other religion than that of the Bibles reveals such a God of mercy and compassion, as manifested by His loving provision for the welfare of His creatures. No other religion suggests so high a standard of dealing with our fellow men.

This Law of God, now nearly four thousand years old, was probably made more or less known through the Jews to other nations and peoples (Deuteronomy 4:6-8), but none of them grasped its true import. The closest approach to this sentiment is probably found in the writings of Confucius, to the effect that one should not do to others what he would not have others do to him. But oh, what a contrast!

One is merely a negative statement; the other is positive—"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The Scribe was impressed, and conceded the truth of Jesus' reply. The Master said to him, "Thou art not far from the Kingdom of God." By this Jesus meant that the Scribe was very near to the point where he might become a disciple—one of those waiting for the Kingdom. It was such "Israelites indeed." In whom was no guile, that Jesus especially sought to gather from amongst the Jewish people, preparatory to throwing open to the Gentiles the door of Kingdom privileges.

The Jews understood that at Messlah's coming He would select a Kingdom class, to which would be granted

Divine power. This was just what Jesus was doing. His words, His teachings, were drawing some and repealing others.

"God Looketh on the Heart."

The Temple at Jerusalem was still new, and money was needed for its maintenance, etc. The people were privileged to contribute, and apparently did so with willing hearts, casting their contributions into the treasure boxes of the Temple, which stood near its doorway.

Jesus was sitting opposite these boxes, and noted

how all classes

contributed.

There came along a poor widow, who put into the box

two mites—each worth about one-eighth of a cent.

Probably by Divine power Jesus knew of her circumstances and her gift. He made it a text for a little sermon to the Apostles. He declared that she had made a larger contribution in God's sight than had any one else; for practically she had cast in all she had, while others had merely contributed out of their abundance what they would perhaps not seriously miss.

This little incident shows the Lord's appreciation of sacrifice. It is not the great things that we do, or attempt to do, that He highly esteems. The very small sacrifices and self-denials, that in the world's sight would be nothing, in the Master's sight would be great if they denote love, devotion and self-sacrifice to the Lord and His Cause.

It is of just such self-sacrificing material that the Lord makes disciples—the class that do what they can.

OUR DOG VICTOR

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

I owned a dog, and I called him

Victor. He was of mixed hunting breed—some setter, some spaniel and some hound. The first moment I saw him and looked into his eye I knew he was very intelligent and could be taught almost anything. I bought him for $5 and took him home with me.

Vic became very much attached to me and I to him. I taught him various tricks which he learned very easily. I tried to train him not to bark at any and every body who came near the place, but failed. His chief delight was to go walking with me.

I am fond of walking, and on those days, not being engaged in any occupation, I used to stray away miles into the country. Vic was my only companion and the only one I wished for.

Vic understood me without my explaining things to him, and his opinions did not clash with mine—that is,

with two exceptions. I didn't think it proper for him to bark at every come he came to or to tackle cats. Vic had different views in these respects and paid no attention to mine whatever.

One morning Vic was missing at the breakfast table where I was used to feeding him choice morsels of food.

That was the end of him for me for a year. I advertised for him, offered a reward for him, did everything I
